Hartford's COVID Update

BY DONNA SWARR

There has been an increase in the number of positive results in Coronavirus testing and an increase in the number of hospitalizations. Is it in a school, small party or did the person travel to an area where there is a higher risk of catching it? They don't seem to know what the cause is, but we can assume it's due to groups of people being together for an extended period of time indoors with someone who is unaware that they are carrying the virus. As always, we need to try very hard to remember to wear our masks. Please turn to page 2 for an update of the Covid-19 statistics as of September 29th.

Phase 3 will begin on Friday, October 2nd. This is an expansion of the number of people allowed at indoor and outdoor locations. The restaurant businesses in Hartford are still suffering. Several have closed, while some are just opening up. The Governor is allowing businesses to increase their capacity indoors from 50% to 75% with a limit of 100 people. These increases include restaurants, hair salons, barber shops, and other personal service businesses. Indoor performance locations will be open at 50% capacity with masks and social distancing requirements. Bars and nightclubs will not be reopening in Phase 3.

Rapid COVID-19 Testing at Arroyo Center Extended through December

The CVS Rapid COVID-19 Testing Site at the Arroyo Center in Pope Park, one of only two in Connecticut, will remain open through December of this year. When it opened in July, the testing site was scheduled to close at the end of September. Testing at the Arroyo Center is free, no car is necessary and appointments can be made over the phone by calling 860-757-9311. Please turn to page 2 for a complete list of COVID-19 testing sites in Hartford.

Our libraries can also allow more people inside. Hopefully, they will be able to provide some indoor programming soon. Private residences are allowed up to 25 people at indoor gatherings. Outdoor events are being allowed to increase from 25% to 50% with a limit of 150 people. They're still required to wear masks and enforce social distancing. Our churches and mosques are allowed up to 50% capacity but with a limit of 200 people indoors with COVID-19 measures still in place. Outdoor religious services have the same capacity of 50% but with no limits on the number of people.

The really big news is that school nurses, in partnership with local hospitals and community health centers, will have mobile testing services located at the schools. How that will

New Britain Avenue Clean-Up

Volunteers gather before spending the morning picking up trash along New Britain Avenue on Saturday, September 26. The effort was a collaboration between the Maple Avenue Revitalization Group (MARG), the Behind The Rocks/Southwest NRZ and the City of Hartford Love Your Block program. Pizza and other refreshments for volunteers were provided by the newly opened Bros Dough Pizza at 448 New Britain Avenue. (Hart photo)

Night Fall 2020 – The Movie to Debut This Saturday

Night Fall, one of Hartford's most beloved community traditions, transitions to the screen for its ninth annual presentation.

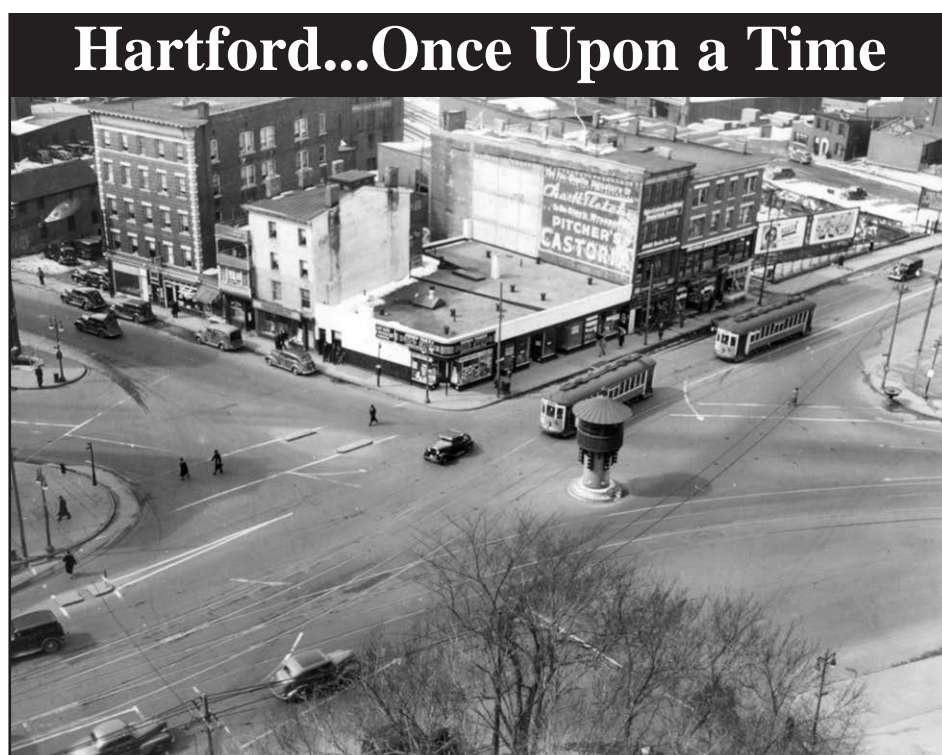

Up to this point, the show has been an outdoor live spectacular staged in one of Hartford's city parks. As 2020 proves to be anything but normal, artist Anne Cubberly's vision for a seasonal performance has been recast as Night Fall 2020 - The Movie, a film that will drop online at NightFallHartford.org and on Night Fall Hartford's social media channels.

The complete program will also air on

Hartford Public Access (HPATV), found at Xfinity Channel 5 and Xfinity Channel 95.

This creatively reenvisioned approach to Night Fall is being released on the event's originally-scheduled date of Saturday, October 3 at 7pm and will be available for the public's enjoyment thereafter.

The show will also air throughout October on Hartford Public Access. As in previous years, Night Fall 2020 - The Movie is free and open to all. The show is perfect for all ages and can be enjoyed regardless of the viewer's primary language.

This photo from the 1930's or 1940's was probably taken from the top of the Keney Clock Tower and shows the intersection of Main Street with High Street, Ann Street, Ely Street and Albany Avenue. Just right of center is the traffic control tower which stood at the busy intersection for many years. Two trolley cars can be seen behind and to the right of the tower. In the top right corner is the railroad underpass that was often referred to as "The Tunnel." Beyond the underpass is Hartford Lumber Company, a family-owned business since 1875. Almost all of the buildings visible in this photograph have since been demolished. (Photo courtesy of the Hartford History Center, Hartford Public Library)

work hasn’t been explained yet, but, this is a serious effort to try to keep the schools open. As the number of Coronavirus cases go up, the school system has started to organize a plan for the possibility of moving towards a hybrid model of in-person and virtual learning. Many other districts have been doing this. A hybrid model means that students attend a few days in school and participate online on the other days. Usually the students are divided

Politically Speaking

A Fresh Look at Issues Facing our Region & State

BY MIKE MCGARRY

Senator...Buzz Off!

To the great displeasure of most of our congressional delegation – five congressional members and one of our senators – the other senator, Richard Blumenthal, can’t keep quiet about anything.

Last night’s news showed that he was shocked – yes, shocked – that a Republican president would try to put a conservative Republican on the Supreme Court! Playing to his base, he claims he will never meet with the potential Supreme Court Justice. We

That said, no moaning and groaning can stop this supreme court nomination from going through.

So, Senator Blumenthal, do our state a favor and move on. Do what’s best for our state and our country, not what gets you the most airtime and newspaper ink.

Every day it seems like Senator Blumenthal is embarking on a new crusade. He is in real danger of turning into the “Boy Who Cried Wolf,” jumping from bandwagon to band-taxpayers should ask him to find another career if he won’t at least be on talking terms with a woman who might be on the bench at the Supreme Court for quite a while. Whether you agree with Trump’s choice or not, any sensible observer should realize that a Democratic president would do exactly what Trump is doing.

Everyday it seems like Senator Blumenthal is embarking on a new crusade. He is in real danger of turning into the “Boy Who Cried Wolf,” jumping from bandwagon to bandwagon to give his two cents on virtually everything certainly diminishes his influence and drowns out our other elected officials in Washington.

This observer thinks that President Trump – tax cheat, accused rapist, possible Russian plant, etc – is unfit for office and should quit the race, (especially now that we know the details on his tax and debt situation) for the good of the Republican Party, as well as the country and the world.

wagon to give his two cents on virtually everything certainly diminishes his influence and drowns out our other elected officials in Washington.

Blumenthal’s constant soaking up of media time puts the rest of our delegation in the rear view mirror. Like ‘em or not, they were elected to represent us and they deserve to be heard once in while, at the very least, for the good of our state and the country as a whole.

With Biden as president and a Democratic majority in the house and senate (which most polls seem to suggest is probable), we need all seven voices – not one.

Letters to the Editor

Info on Absentee Ballots

Good People!

Ahead of the general election in November, Secretary of the State Denise Merrill said that voters are better off depositing completed absentee ballots directly into official ballot drop boxes, which will be located in every town, rather than mailing them in.

You must deposit your application and/or absentee ballot in the town in which you live. You will find them in front of your city hall, or town hall. Additional drop boxes have been placed in front of the Albany Branch Library, 1230 Albany Ave., The Dwight Library, 7 New Park Ave, and the South End Senior Wellness Center at 830 Maple Avenue.

“This postal situation is very, very detrimental to us,” Merrill said. “We just finished explaining to everybody that they could vote absentee during COVID for the general elections. And now we have a situation where the Postal Service is going to be slowing up.”

It is equally important to vote for your federal, state and municipal elected officials who are up for election this year, including:

- US Congressman John Larson
- Senator Doug McCrory
- Majority Leader Matt Ritter
- State Representative Julio Concepcion
- State Representative Minnie Gonzalez
- State Representative Joshua Hall
- State Representative Brandon McGee
- State Representative Edwin Vargas, Jr.
- Registrar of Voters, Giselle “Gigi” Feliciano

Voting in the 2020 Election What You Need To Know

FROM SECRETARY OF THE STATE, DENISE MERRILL

Am I eligible to vote in CT?

- Are you at least 17 and turning 18 on or before Election Day?
- Are you a United States Citizen living in Connecticut?
- If you have been convicted of a felony, have you completed confinement and parole?

If you can answer YES to all three of these questions, you are eligible to vote in CT

How do I register to vote in CT?

There are two different ways you can register to vote in CT. You are able to register online if you have a CT DMV ID, otherwise you are able to complete a paper registration card and deliver it to your local Registrar of Voters before the registration deadlines. CT also has Election Day Registration available. Visit myvote.ct.gov, for more info.

How can a homeless person be a resident of a town in CT?

Courts have said that an individual is a resident of a town if they have some nexus to that particular town, and there is an intention to return to that town when absent from it. This could be some town that you have spent time in, slept in, and intend to go back to even if you are not presently there.

What is an acceptable form of identification for voting?

Your identification must fit one of the following requirements for it to be accepted as a valid form of ID at the polls: name and address, or name and signature, or, name and photograph

There may be other instances where some additional types of identification may be required. Contact your local registrar of voters' office or visit myvote.ct.gov, for more information on ID requirements.

This material is designed to provide basic information to the voters of Connecticut and is not meant to be a comprehensive review of Connecticut election law. Please contact the Secretary of the State at (860) 509-6100 if you have specific questions, concerns or complaints.

Important Connecticut election dates and deadlines

- Election Day is Tuesday, November 7th
- Online Voter Registration Deadline – October 31st (11:59 pm)
- Mail Postmark Voter Registration Deadline- October 31st
- In-Person Voter Registration Deadline- October 31st
- Absentee Ballots Available- Friday, October 6th
- Absentee Ballots Received by local Town Clerk (or will not be counted) by Close of Polls 8pm on Election Day

I can't vote on election day, am I still able to vote?

You are able to apply for an absentee ballot if you are out of town on the day of the election and for a few other reasons. After you mail in your absentee ballot application to the local Town Clerk, they will mail you back your absentee ballot to fill out and send back. For links and deadlines to apply visit myvote.ct.gov

What is the difference between my physical and mailing address?

A mailing address is some place where you are able to receive mail and your physical address is where you are located. Your physical address determines where you vote, not mailing address.

For example, your mailing address could be a local shelter or post office, where your physical address could be a particular place such as a park bench. You must be responsible to check for mail at the address provided. A registration confirmation letter will be mailed to you once you are registered. Visit myvote.ct.gov, for more info.

What happens if I miss one of the registration deadlines, can I still register and vote (election day registration)?

You may register and vote in person on Election Day if you meet the eligibility requirements for voting in this state and you are not already registered, OR you are registered in one town and want to change your registration because you currently reside in another town. Election Day Registration is not available at your polling place. Contact your local registrar of voter's office for information about your town's designated EDR location and ID requirements. You will need to provide proof of identity and residency. Visit myvote.ct.gov, for more info.

HARTFORD
HAS IT

ASYLUM HILL NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

From the Executive Director
BY DAVID MACDONALD

Schools have re-opened as we continue to adapt to the COVID pandemic. The Fall also brings the time for the AHNA Annual meeting and elections for the AHNA Board of Directors. Notice has gone out to AHNA members asking interested people to send us their nominations. We ask you, to consider serving Asylum Hill by representing your neighbors on our Board of Directors. It provides you an excellent opportunity to make a difference in Asylum Hill.

There are many important issues that we need residents to lead and work on, such as reducing blight, advocating for improvements to Farmington Avenue, supporting our community gardens, reducing litter, and calming traffic. If you are interested in serving the Asylum Hill neighborhood, would like an application, or need more information about being a director of AHNA, please contact me at exdir@asylumhill.org.

To be eligible to be a Director, you must be an AHNA member in good standing, which means you have attended (either in person or via Zoom) at least 2 AHNA General Meetings in 2020. Directors are expected to attend the monthly BOD meeting, monthly General Meeting and join at least one committee. That's a minimum of 3 three meetings per month.

Our next General neighborhood meeting will take place on Monday, October 5th at 6:15pm via Zoom. At this General Meeting, we will present the interested candidates to date and accept any final nominations from the floor. Newly revised By-Laws will also be presented for the membership's consideration, with a vote on adoption scheduled for December 7th. General Meetings will continue with Zoom until further notice. Join our email list to receive notifications and zoom links every month. We hope you will consider being a candidate and bring your valuable experience to work with us to improve the quality of life in Asylum Hill.

Our Love Your Block projects are coming along very well. Painting for the Marshall Street mural has started and will be completed very soon. I encourage you to stop by to check it out.

If you're interested in helping with the mural, please contact AHNA. The Asylum Hill Pollinator Garden project installed 6 new pollinator gardens that support bees and butterflies, one each at Immanuel Congregational Church, Trinity Episcopal Church, Grace Lutheran Church, Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Youth Challenge and St. Joseph's Cathedral. The project also completed a neighborhood cleanup around Woodland Street, Farmington Avenue and Niles Street. About 40 volunteers collected more than 20 bags of garbage and we celebrated together at Grace Lutheran with good food and music.

We invite all our partners, stakeholders and residents to attend the annual meeting on Monday November 2nd and don't forget to vote November 3rd in the Presidential election.

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Mural at Marshall & Farmington

Last month we wrote about the work that was done with one of the Love Your Block grants that Asylum Hill received. So this month we'd like to turn your attention to the second project.

Led by Louisa Barton Duguay, and taking advantage of her considerable artistic skills, the Eastern wall of what was the Super Wash Laundromat is getting a remarkable facelift. But the improvements aren't stopping there. This shopping center extends from 294 to 308 Farmington Ave and includes the businesses from the old Super Wash, and is now the Super Spin Laundromat on the corner, to what was Little Caesar's Pizza and soon will be the new home of A-1 Pizza. As you can see, a lot is changing. And that's not all. What is currently called the 99 Cent Only Store in the middle of the plaza will soon be getting a new sign advertising the Farmington Ave Super Store. They have already begun to add food items, and will continue until they have more than half of their space dedicated to food. The new manager there is intent on building up the business to provide a valuable resource to the neighborhood.

The work continues on the outside of each storefront since the building's new owner 294-308 FARMINGTON AVE LLC, a locally owned business, has given permission for all of the improvements. The mural was of course the most important, but the fresh and colorful paint on the security gates and the retaining wall are a great way to tell the world "we care!" EXPLORING ASYLUM HILL

The Trident

The intersection of Asylum, Farmington and Broad has been a problem for decades. It has been the focus of attention off and on for all that time. Most recently it received "block-the-box" status with painted markings, and in 2018 it was an important part of the I-84 Hartford Project, a planning effort to replace the I-84 Viaduct with a ground level highway.

Before that, in 2008 it was a subject of the Hartford 2010 Trident Committee for Asylum Hill, part of a City wide effort to improve all of the Tridents in Hartford.

This year the trident was affected like all of Connecticut by the pandemic and the resulting regulations that dramatically reduced traffic in that area. But somehow, in the last few months, it seems that the timing of the lights there were changed and things got much worse.

This week, I met with Hartford's newest Traffic Engineers, Sebastian Tata and Bahman Moghimi, to try to understand what happened, and what can be done. Sebastian comes to Hartford after retiring from a long career with CT DOT, and Bahman is a young engineer from New York.

They both just started with the City in the last three months, so as far as what happened they weren't able to offer much, but in terms of what can and is being doing, they were very helpful.

Suffice it to say that the equipment that controls the timing of these lights is very old, it can only be adjusted on location at the control box on the northeast corner of Cogswell and Asylum. The City is in the process of replacing all of the traffic signals with newer ones that can be centrally controlled. They have begun downtown, and you may have noticed newer ones painted black. Clearly, this is a work in progress, and up until now this intersection wasn't even on the list to be replaced next. Thanks to Jennifer Cassidy's efforts, they are well aware of the issue and it seems that there has been an incremental improvement. AHNA will continue to monitor this problem, but technology is on our side. It is possible now to connect cameras and computers to intersections like this to adjust the timing of the lights in real time for optimal performance. We just need to get there.

For more photos of the intersection go to; <http://bit.ly/tridenttraffic>

The Trouble Began... Stowe Center At The Twain House

Actually, as we all know, the trouble began for real in March, but the Mark Twain House and Museum lecture series The Trouble Begins started off the 2020 season with Trouble at Home: Beth Burgess: The Nook Farm of the Clemenses and Stowes.

It was a wonderful event for a lot of reasons, not least of which was the fact that it was both live and virtual. There were only 18 seats available in the Lincoln Financial Auditorium, and I got mine (4th row) as soon as I saw it posted.

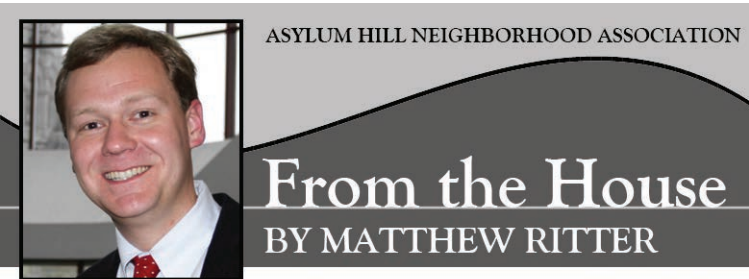

The real reason that I was so pleased to attend was the program; Jodi DeBruyne, Director of Collections at the Mark Twain House was interviewing Beth Burgess, Collections Manager at the Harriet Beecher Stowe Center.

They are both very familiar with much of their respective collections, and are regularly connecting to share items of interest to one another. They both have lots more to look at, but the topic for this event was Nook Farm.

They told the story of how the property got its name, it's located in an area of land that was originally a farm at the nook of the Park river. The property was purchased by Frances Gillett and John Hooker in 1853 from William Imlay who owned it as a farm. John and Isabella Beecher Hooker built the house that is now at 140 Hawthorn and that was the house that Sam Clemens and family lived in while their home on Farmington Avenue was being built.

Harriet Beecher Stowe had already moved into her home to the East from a grand mansion on the south side of Hawthorn which she left after her children were raised. She was looking for something smaller and purchased it from the builder, who built it on speculation.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's earlier home along with the Charles Dudley Warner home that was just south of the Clemens home, and many others have been demolished over the years, which makes those like these and the Day house on the corner of Forest and Farmington all the more precious. The Charles Boardman Smith house at 66 Forest across the street is a good example of what can happen, as it is currently in an estate and has been boarded up. The complete lecture is available at <https://www.crowdcast.io/e/trouble-at-home-beth>

More Ballot Boxes for Hartford

Every registered voter can vote by absentee ballot this year due to COVID-19. Hartford is ready for a safe, secure election with a huge turnout; both in-person and by absentee ballot.

We had a test run with the primary in August which was the first time we were able to drop our ballots in a drop box. In addition to the Official Ballot Drop Box outside City Hall, the State has allocated three additional boxes. You will find the boxes at the following locations:

- Corner of Albany & Blue Hills Ave.
- Corner of Park Street & New Park Ave.
- South End Senior Center

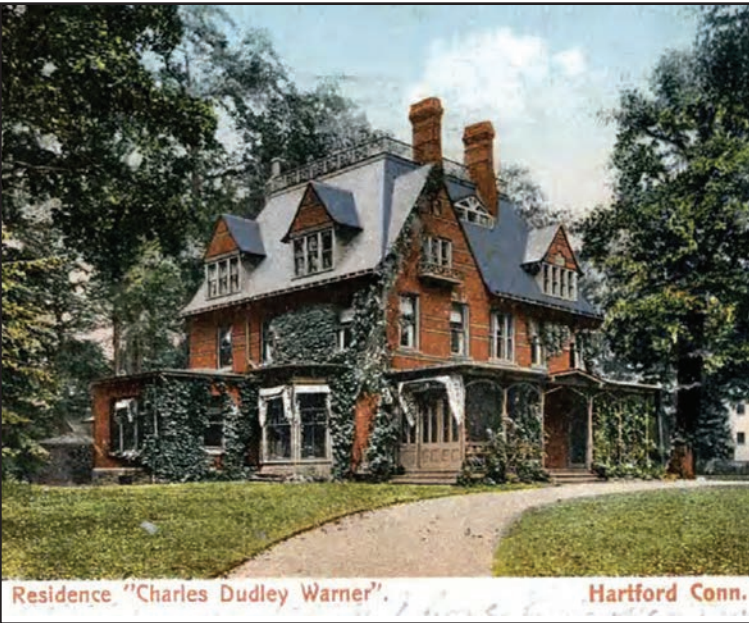

Once you submit an absentee ballot application to the City Clerk, a ballot will then be mailed to you (no earlier than October 2nd). You can drop off your application in the drop box too.

Voting by absentee is simple and safe:

Fill the ballot out completely and mail it to the City Clerk in the envelope provided, return it in person to the City Clerk's office, or, drop it in one of Hartford's four Official Ballot Drop Boxes.

Make sure your voice is heard - vote.

ASYLUM HILL THEN & NOW Charles Dudley Warner Home

The above image is from a post card in the collection of the Hartford History Center of the Hartford Public Library. It shows the home of Charles Dudley Warner, which we would all be aware of if it were still standing. According to the Sanborn Fire Insurance Map of 1900, It was located at 57 Forest St and was set back far enough to be due South of the Twain House. The map also shows that the Stowe and Day houses were all one property with an address of 341 Farmington Avenue. Today, of course, everything south of the Twain and Stowe homes on the West side of Forest St is Hartford Public High School and most of the East side are apartments. The only other homes from this 1900 map are 66 Forest St which is currently boarded up, and the Beecher Hooker home at 140 Hawthorn St.

El Informativo Latino

¡Hola Hartford! ¿Ya llenó su censo?

Estamos en un 59% de finalización. ¡Necesitamos que lo llenes! ¡Nuestra financiación federal para los próximos 10 años depende de nosotros!

- El censo es un recuento de la población de cada pueblo, ciudad o estado. El censo cuenta a todas las personas en los EE. UU. Y los 5 territorios de EE. UU.
- El censo se puede enviar por correo y se puede completar por teléfono, en línea o en persona con un enumerador.
- El censo es confidencial y la información se mantiene segura. No tiene que preocuparse si es indocumentado o no figura en el contrato de arrendamiento. Si vives allí, mereces ser contado.
- Son solo 9 preguntas sobre quién vive en su hogar.
- Cualquiera puede contarse independientemente de su vivienda, inmigración o cualquier otra circunstancia. ¡Todos deberían ser contados!
- El censo no está solo en inglés. Está en otros 59 idiomas, incluidos español, árabe, ruso y más.

Complete su censo llamando al 1-844-330-2020 o visitando <https://my2020census.gov/>
¡Yo cuento! ¡Tú cuentas!
¡Nosotros contamos

Hartford Youth Trinity, Ajah, Teonjai y Tiana organizaron, ejecutaron y armaron los tableros para esta exposición informativa en 769 Park Street, 26 de septiembre de 2020. Se están asegurando de que se cuente Frog Hollow. Estamos muy orgullosos del trabajo que hicieron. De parte de Hartford newspapers y la diferente radio, felicitaciones.

Durante el mes de la herencia hispana La comunidad Latina desea felicitar La Representante Estatal Sra. Minnie González por su gran labor en nuestra comunidad y representar a nuestra gente. De parte Hartford newspapers y La Diferente Radio les felicitamos.
